(Copyright, 1919, N. E. A.)

Planning the Christmas dinner don't forget that in just a week you will be serving another holiday dinner and that the more our palates are tickled the sooner food calls on us.

Try to have absolutely no left-overs to work up. During the intermediate week serve an old-fashioned boiled dinner. You might even attempt a "dinner of herbs," anything to whet the appetite and bring contrast to the rich and "dressy" affairs that tradition demands and that come so closely together.

If you have a bird of some sort to grace the first feast order an especially fine roast for the second. If the size of your family will warrant it get a whole roast pig. There's nothing more luscious than a six-week-old piggy stuffed and roasted. Let him make his appearance with a glowing red apple in his mouth. We stuff our porking the day before and send him to a bake shop to be roasted New Year's morning.

After all it's the feeding in our hearts rather than the extravagant and dainty dishes on the table that makes the holidays a success.

Christmas Dinner Menu.

Fruit cocktail, bouillon with bread sticks, celery, roast goose with chestnut stuffing, apple sauce, mashed potatoes, giblet gravy, corn croquettes, asparagus, salad, sweet, almonds, cheese cups, plum pudding, coffee.

My Own Recipes.

The danger of over-eating is a very real one. As I made out this menu the many calories of proteins and fats and carbohydrates that kept popping at me were appalling and yet, how could one have a much simpler dinner? The temptation to add a fruit ice after the pudding was great, but you see, I didn't yield. Serve small portions of all the viands. Forbear to urge second helpings, although it is such a satisfaction to the cook to see people eat themselves sick as it were.

FRUIT COCKTAIL.

2 grapefruit.
1 orange.
2 slices pineapple.
1-4 cup white grapes.
8 Maraschino cherries.
1-8 teaspoon salt.
1-2 cup sugar.

Slice grapefruit, remove pulp and juice. Mix oranges and pineapple, cut pineapple in disks, remove seeds from grapes. Mix salt in sugar and add to fruit, and juice. Put into a glass jar and let stand 4 or 6 hours. Serve in high-standing short glasses with a cherry in each.

ROAST GOOSE.

A "green goose" (four months old) is the choicest, but one up to eight months may be used. Scrub with hot soap suds, unless you are sure the butcher has done it. Rinse well and wipe. Season the inside with salt and pepper and stuff. Place on a rack in the dripping pan, sprinkle with salt and pepper, put a little water in the pan and bake an hour. Pour off the fat, dredge the bird with flour, sprinkle with pepper and lay 6 slices of salt pork on the breast. Baste every 20 minutes with the fat in the pan, adding water if necessary. Cook until the joints separate easily, 2 or 3 hours.

Make a gravy of the cooked chopped giblets.

CHESTNUT STUFFING.

20 French chestnuts or
1 pint American chestnuts.
2 cups stale bread crumbs.
2 tablespoons melted butter.
2 teaspoons salt.
1-2 teaspoon pepper.
1 tablespoon minced parsley.
1-2 tablespoon minced onion.
Hot water to make stiff.
Shell chestnuts and boil 10 minutes. Cut in pieces. Mix all ingredients.

PLUM PUDDING.

2-1/2 cups stale bread crumbs.
1 cup finely chopped beef suet.
1-2 cup sugar.
1-2 cup molasses.
1 cup milk.
1-2 teaspoon soda.
1-2-3/4 teaspoon baking powder.

1-2 cup salt.
1-2 teaspoon nutmeg.
1-2 teaspoon cinnamon.
1-2 cup English walnut meats.
1 cup raisins.
1-2 cup chopped figs.
1-4 cup citron.
1-2 cup stoned prunes.
1-4 cup candied orange peel or glacer.

Soak bread crumbs in milk. Add sugar and molasses. Sprinkle fruit with flour as much as the fruit will absorb. Add to first mixture. Cream suet with the hands and add. Mix baking powder, salt and soda. Mix thoroughly into the dough. Add raisins and nuts. Turn into a buttered mold and steam four hours. Serve with whipped cream or hard sauce.
